BACHELOR OF SCIENCE IN HOMELAND SECURITY & EMERGENCY MANAGEMENT

Whether you have an Associate's degree or have never before attended college, our online Bachelor's degree allows you to advance your career while completing your degree from the comfort of your home.

CHOOSE FROM TWO TRACKS OR STUDY A COMBINATION OF BOTH:

1. HOMELAND SECURITY

Become part of our government's strong security network. Know how to protect critical infrastructure and navigate some of the country's hottest homeland security and terrorism topics.

2. EMERGENCY MANAGEMENT

Become the best at planning for the worst. Learn how to create an Emergency Management plan, ensure business continuity, and prepare for manmade or natural disasters.

BENEFITS OF OUR B.S. IN HOMELAND SECURITY & EMERGENCY MANAGEMENT:

1. Classes are 100% online and most take just 6 to 7 weeks to complete.
2. Only one course per mini-term is required for maximum work-life balance.
3. As a nationally recognized leader in emergency management, a bachelor's from the University of New Haven strengthens your resume.
4. Develop skills to plan and prepare for pending emergencies, manage operations during emergencies, and conduct recovery efforts after emergencies.
5. Receive hands-on training from experienced faculty in the intelligence analysis and investigation fields.

WIDE RANGE OF CAREER OPPORTUNITIES:

Our degree will qualify you for a wide range of career opportunities, including jobs with the TSA, FEMA, Customs and Border Protection. And while these federal, state, and local government agencies offer many opportunities, there are private companies and nonprofit organizations to consider.

QUICK FACTS:

- ▶ Applying is easy and only new high school grads are required to submit scores from the SAT/ACT.
- ▶ You may be able to reduce the cost of your bachelor's if you are currently a Firefighter or a Homeland Security professional.
- ▶ All classes are offered 100% online, so you can continue to work and take courses when it's convenient for you.
