

Stephanie Kennedy is the Senior Director of Fraud at Nymbus. Stephanie has been in the financial crimes industry for over 13 years, as a Financial Crimes Investigator and Fraud Manager within the banking and FinTech industry. As the Senior Director of Fraud at Nymbus, Stephanie is responsible for developing and implementing strategies to prevent, detect, and respond to fraud on behalf of Nymbus' partner financial institutions nationwide. Prior to her role at Nymbus, Stephanie also held Fraud Officer and Fraud Analyst positions at a $4.5B institution, for over 10 years. In total, Stephanie has over 20 years of banking and credit union experience, bringing forward a wealth of expertise in identifying and mitigating fraud risk, fraud strategy, fraud investigations, collections and recovery.

Since joining the International Association of Financial Crimes Investigators (IAFCI) in 2012, Stephanie achieved the Certified Financial Crimes Investigator (CFCI) certification in 2013. She is widely regarded as a subject matter expert, serving as a co-chair for the Banking Fraud and Exploitation of the Vulnerable industry groups. Additionally, Stephanie holds the position of Secretary for the IAFCI's New England Chapter.